

CURRICULUM VITAE

Last Name: HAUG
First Name: Guy
E-mail: guy.haug@gmail.com

Dr. Guy Haug is an independent European expert on higher education policy in an international setting. He is currently advisor on institutional and international development to the Rector (and Rector team) of the Valencia University of Technology, Spain. Projects about accreditation, communication, internationalisation, mobility (The University is among the most active ones in Europe in the Erasmus programme and has several Erasmus Mundus Masters.)

Independent advisor to Governments, international organisations, QA agencies and higher education networks. Examples of recent projects: main author of the Commission's report on quality assurance 2009 . Co-author of the OECD report on higher Education in Spain 2007.

He served 2001 – April 2006 as advisor to the European Commission, (Directorate for Education) for the creation of an agenda for university modernisation as part of the EU's Lisbon Strategy for the knowledge era.

Before that he was centrally involved in shaping the Bologna process, as Principal Advisor to the European Association of Universities. Until 1998 he was Director General for Europe of the Council on International Exchange, New York/Paris. He worked for the EU for the inception of the ERASMUS; TEMPUS; and ASIA-LINK programmes. He also cooperated with the council OF Europe, the Nordic Council of Ministers, the OECD, UNESCO and many NGOS and university networks in Europe, North America and Latin America and Asia

He is author of numerous publications and communications on higher education policy.

He holds a Master's degree in law (Strasbourg), a MBA (Ottawa), Ph.D. in Political Science (Tübingen) and a Doctorate Honoris Causa from HETAC (Ireland).